

Justice and Peace Work at Edgewood

The Justice and Peace Task Force meets regularly to continue the church's 60 year tradition of working for socio-economic justice and peace, following the commitments of Edgewood's Just Peace Covenant.

The Task Force collaborates with other faith communities and human rights groups working on these issues locally and across the state and nation. Our focus is on advocacy for change in the laws and regulations that support injustice and inequality. Current working groups organized within the Task Force are:

Economic Justice - Contact person: Ada Kidd, 351-7510, <daveadakidd@gmail.com>

Racial Justice Advocacy – Contact Persons: Christine Root 332-0333, rootc@msu.edu and Ada Kidd, 351-7510

Immigration - Contact person: Carolyn Ojala, 351-5980, ojalac@sbcglobal.net with Beth and Al Cafagna , 351-6480, Albert Cafagna <cafagna@msu.edu>

Prison Concerns - Contact person: Frank Dennis, 332-5181, fgdennis@msu.edu.

Demilitarization and the United Nations - Contact persons: David Wiley, 332-0333, wiley@msu.edu, and Jim Anderson, anders90@msu.edu.

Sustainability in the developing world - Contact person: Carol Myers-Scotton, 333-0334, cmsbingwa@gmail.com.

Other Justice and Peace Concerns: Contact person: Frank Dennis, Task Force Chair: 332-5181, fgdennis@msu.edu. e.g., fair trade coffee and other products. Environmental, Hunger, and Global Mission issues, as well as campaigns for Bread for the World, Heifer Project, Crop Walk, UNICEF card sales, etc.

